The MA in Christian Spirituality provides preparation for work in general Christian ministry, in Spiritual Direction, or in preparation for an academic career in teaching. The program can also assist those who wish to complement their personal spiritual journey with an academic foundation in scripture, theology, and spirituality. Graduates of the program will have a competent understanding of methods of studying Christian spirituality along with its biblical, scriptural and theological foundations. There are three concentrations available NEW LIFE CHRISTIAN ACADEMY is committed to historic Biblical orthodoxy as expressed in the historic church councils and creeds. It welcomes serious Christians from all of the Christian faith traditions. It seeks to be theologically orthodox, evangelical in character, and Christian in spirit. Its Statement of Faith is considered primary doctrine. Spiritual Life A true, traditional liberal arts curriculum is infused by our Christian faith as NLCA seeks to educate the whole person. Staff and faculty seek to integrate faith and learning into every aspect of NLCA and our community--whether that's through weekly chapels, spiritual conversations, both in and out of the classroom. Our teachers will also lead the students in moments of reflection and prayer.
